SETEX, Inc. receives a letter of appreciation from the USA Ohio governor - Celebrating its 30th anniversary with local communities -

SETEX, Inc. (President: Katsumi Yamada), one of the US joint ventures of TACHI-S Co., Ltd. (President, CEO & COO: Taro Nakayama, Headquarters: Akishima, Tokyo), received a letter of appreciation from the USA Ohio governor for its contributions to the community over many years on November 1, 2018, and also received a certificate of commendation for the 30th anniversary of its founding from the City of St. Marys mayor on December 13, 2018.

SETEX, Inc., established in 1987 as the first manufacturing site in North America, started production in 1988 with approximately 100 employees. At that time production of seats began for the HONDA (USA) 4 Door Accord, which continues to be a mainstay for the company to the current day. SETEX has always been committed to having a long-term, good relationship with its customers, employees and community since the company was established. As a result, it has achieved a cumulative production volume of 6.56 million car sets as of November, 2018.

This year, the company celebrated its 30th anniversary, received a commemorative certificate from the City of St. Marys mayor, and held a commemorative event for its employees. SETEX also received a letter of appreciation from the Governor of Ohio for creating local employment and supporting many local organizations and schools.

SETEX continues to grow with the local community in order to go on to celebrate 50th and 100 year anniversaries.
